outline.

- PENTECOST AND THE HOLY SPIRIT (2:1-4):
 - + In Acts 1, Jesus told the Apostles to wait in Jerusalem until the Holy Spirit arrived.
 - + The Apostles were all gathered together on Pentecost (an annual Jewish feast day) when the sound of a strong wind filled their house.
 - + “Divided tongues as of fire” appeared and rested on each of them.
 - + They were filled with the Holy Spirit, who enabled them to speak other languages.
- A CROWD GATHERS AROUND THE APOSTLES (2:5-13):
 - + Hearing the wind-like sound coming from the Apostles house, the people in the area started gathering to inspect the scene.
 - + The crowd was very diverse (Acts 2:9-11) yet they were all hearing the Apostles speaking in their own languages.
 - + Some people mocked the Apostles and accused them of being drunk.
- PETER SPEAKS TO THE PENTECOST CROWD (2:14-41):
 - + Peter addressed the group and began explaining what was happening.
 - + The arrival of the Holy Spirit was the fulfillment of a prophecy in Joel 2:28-32.
 - + Peter, with the help of the Holy Spirit, made the case from the Old Testament that Jesus of Nazareth was the Christ.
 - + Jesus was the fulfillment of David’s words in Psalm 16:8-11 when he wrote “For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One see corruption.”
 - + Peter argued that Jesus rose from the dead and ascended into Heaven to sit at God’s throne in fulfillment of Psalm 110:1.
 - + Peter told the Jews to repent of their rebellion against God and be baptized.”
 - + 3,000 Jews were convicted by Peter’s words and were baptized.
- THE UNITY OF THE BELIEVERS (2:42-47):
 - + All of the new “believers” devoted themselves to the teachings of the Apostles.
 - + They shared their possessions with anyone in need.
 - + They met daily in their homes and in the Temple.
 - + The Lord added many new believers to their group day by day.

application.

- The unity of the early believers could be observed in their words, in the way they spent their money, and in the way they spent their time.
- Their unity was much deeper than a weekly meeting on Sunday morning.
- The modern Church can’t expect to experience the results of the early Church until they are devoted and unified in the same way.
- Too many churches are preaching a gospel that requires little to no commitment from their members.
- Committing your life to Christ is a HUGE commitment and should not be entered into lightly.
