WHEN

- Most scholars place the period of the Judges between 1450 B.C. and 1000 B.C.
- Most scholars place Samson's life between 1175 and 1075 B.C.

WHERE

- The Philistines tried to ambush Samson at Gaza, but he escaped with the gates of the city and went to Hebron.
- Delilah lived in the Valley of Sorek which ran next to the city of Timnah.
- Samson was imprisoned in Gaza.

CHARACTERS

- Samson – The 13th judge of Israel. He was a Nazarite from birth (Num 6). The Spirit of God empowered him with supernatural strength.
- Delilah – Samson's lover who lived in the Valley of Sorek.
- The Philistines – God allowed the Philistines to oppress Israel for 40 years when the Israelites broke their covenant with the Lord.

OUTLINE

- SAMSON ESCAPES WITH THE GATES OF GAZA (16:1-3):
  - + Samson went into a prostitute's house in Gaza and spent the night.
  - + When the Philistines found out, they set an ambush to kill him in the morning.
  - + Samson got up at midnight, tore the gates of the city off the walls, left town, and carried the gates about 37 miles (60km) and put them on top of a hill close to Hebron.
- SAMSON AND DELILAH (16:4-22):
  - + Samson fell in love with a woman named Delilah.
  - + The Philistine lords told Delilah they would each give her 1,100 pieces of silver if she could figure out the secret of Samson's great strength.
  - + Delilah asked Samson to tell her how he could be bound. He lied to her and told her if he was bound with 7 fresh bowstrings, he would lose his strength and be like a normal man.
  - + The Philistines brought Delilah the bowstrings and set an ambush for Samson.
  - + Delilah tied Samson with the bowstrings and cried out, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!"
  - + Samson snapped his bindings with ease and the Philistines failed to catch him.
  - + The same thing happened two more times.
  - + The 2nd time, Samson told Delilah she needed to bind him with 2 new ropes. That turned out to be a lie.
  - + The 3rd time, Samson told Delilah she needed to braid the 7 locks of his head into a web. That was also a lie.
  - + By the 4th time, Samson was so tired of Delilah, he told her the truth (dumb).
  - + He told her he would lose his strength if his head was shaved. This was true because Samson's hair was part of his vow to God as a Nazarite (Num 6).
  - + When Delilah realized he was telling the truth, she called the leaders of the Philistines to her, and they set another ambush.
  - + While he slept, Delilah had a man shave off Samson's hair.
  - + Samson awoke but his strength was gone.
  - + The Philistines captured him, gouged out his eyes, put him in shackles, and put him to work grinding grain in the prison.
  - + "But the hair of his head began to grow again after it had been shaved."
- THE VICTORY AND DEATH OF SAMSON (16:23-31):
  - + The Philistines gathered to offer sacrifices to their idol Dagon and to celebrate the capture of Samson.
  - + They requested Samson be brought to their celebration to mock him.
  - + Samson asked the young man who was leading him to show him the pillars that supported the building.
  - + When his hands were on the pillars, Samson prayed to God saying, "O Lord God, please remember me only this once, O God, that I may be avenged on the Philistines for my two eyes."
  - + Grasping the supporting pillars, Samson pulled them down with all his might.
  - + As the building collapsed it killed Samson, at least 3,000 people, and all the lords of the Philistines.
  - + Samson judged Israel 20 years.

APPLICATION

- Samson's life teaches us about God's grace towards imperfect people.
- Samson's name is found alongside that of Abraham, Joseph, and Moses in Hebrews 11, a chapter honoring people of great faith.
- Don't let Samson's life become a license for sin, instead let it teach you about the abundance of God's forbearance and kindness towards imperfect people.
